Interested in pursuing graduate studies in nursing education?

Explore program options:
Look for those offering a focus in nursing education

Explore types of programs:
Traditional vs. online/full or part time

Explore tuition reimbursement/scholarships through employer

Consider costs of programs

Obtain information on programs requirements and application procedures

Explore assistance opportunities through professional organizations

Be realistic about time commitments

Discuss flexible work options; assess support systems

Enjoy the rewards of educating the next generation of nurses!

Explore collaborations that allow teaching opportunities while maintaining employment

Research the nursing faculty role and seek out a mentor